COPYRIGHT POLICY

PERMISSION REQUIRED

Copyright, trademark, right of publicity laws, and other intellectual property laws prevent H-E-B and other cake makers from making cakes, cupcakes, cookies, and other baked goods depicting protected characters, logos, trademarks, names, or likenesses of others without permission from the respective rights owners. Works for which permission is required include; movie, TV, cartoon and comic book characters, college or professional sports team logos, slogans, and pictures or drawings of famous people. Violation of these laws could expose H-E-B and the customer to legal action possibly resulting in damage payments, including statutory damage payments of potentially up to $150,000 per violation.

- Copyright infringement occurs when a copyrighted work is reproduced, distributed, performed, publicly displayed or made into a derivative work without the permission of the copyright owner.
- Trademark infringement occurs when a trademark is used in a way that is likely to cause confusion or mistake as to the source, sponsorship, or affiliation of the goods or services.
- Infringement of one's right of publicity occurs when one's name, likeness, or identity is used for commercial purposes without permission.
- If material is accompanied by a ©, TM, or ® mark, it is likely protected and cannot be used without permission from the owner. U.S. law does not require that protected material be marked, however, so it is safe to assume that even unmarked materials are protected.

EXAMPLES

Each of the following activities may constitute infringement:

- Hand drawings, tracings, or outlines of characters, logos, or third party artwork
- Printing of a character, logo, design, or professional photograph on edible printing paper, for example.
- Modifying a character or logo
- Making three dimensional characters or logos (Such as with fondant)
- Using a famous slogan or the name of a famous person

BEFORE WE START CUSTOMIZING YOUR CAKE

WITH A PHOTO OR LOGO...

You must get written permission from your photographer, school, institution, company, etc. & share with H-E-B Bakery to proceed with your customized image cake.

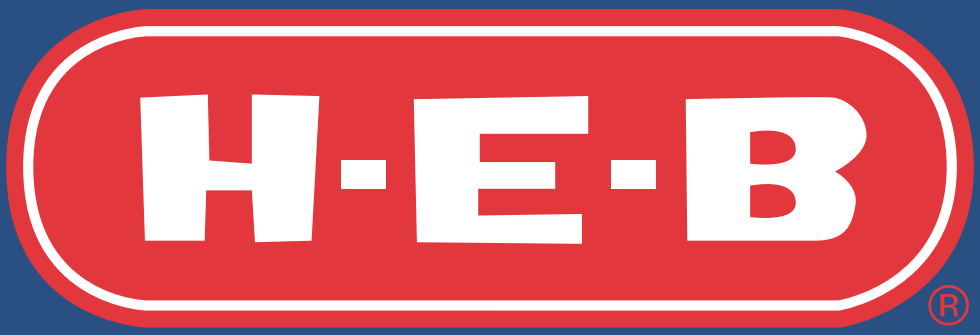

TO USE LOGO...

Get written permission on the school or company's letterhead

TO USE PROFESSIONAL PHOTO...

Get written permission from the photographer on their letterhead OR provide H-E-B with the photographer's print release form.
